

University of Wisconsin Multidisciplinary Pain Medicine Fellowship

600 Highland Avenue, Madison WI, 53792

Nalini Sehgal, MD
Fellowship Director

Contact: Delilah Kowalke
Education Program Manager
(608) 263-8642

Keth Pride, MD
Fellowship Assistant Director

kowalke@rehab.wisc.edu

- UW Hospitals and Clinics is designated Wisconsin's #1 hospital (U.S. News & World Report)
- Madison, WI - #3 Top 100 Best Places to Live (Livability.com, February 2019), #1 Cities with the Best Work-Life Balance (smartasset.com, January 2020)
- Fellows are trained by nationally recognized multidisciplinary faculty
- Core faculty board certified in Pain Medicine by American Board of Anesthesiology
- Time is balanced among outpatient clinics, procedure center, and inpatient consult services
- Rotations in acute pain service, inpatient pain consult service, palliative care service, addiction medicine, psychology, radiology
- Spine, Pain Management, Headache, and Cancer Pain outpatient clinics
- Full patient range from pediatric through geriatric
- Rigorous curriculum based on IASP Core Curriculum for Pain Professionals
- Additional training includes prolotherapy, kyphoplasty, simulation training session, cadaver course, cadaver nerve course, suture skills lab and soft tissue dissection
- Research opportunities in assessment of pain, neuropathic pain, cancer pain, treatment outcomes in pain, and interventional techniques in pain
- Educational stipend, ABA Pain In-Training Exam administered